Subject: Evil Swedish pastors.

An appeal for practical Christian help: Christian unmarried man innocently excommunicated from church in Sweden, ousted from Swedish society, and currently without humane future in Sweden, because of Sweden's heartless pastors and heretic priests, and due to Sweden's aggressively anti-Christian culture.

Dear Pastors and Ministry leaders,

Will you please help? If for some reason it is impossible for you to be a friend in Christ and to be practical, then will you please at least pray - that a human on earth will want to help as a Christian?

By sins of commission from the Swedish Pentecostal denomination and by sins of omission (failing to do what God has commanded) from verbal adherents of Christianity within all other Swedish churches, these circumstances are. Even if 6.9 billion people on earth were to pray for a solution to the circumstances described in this letter - none of these circumstances would change. Unless, a human decides to help. God expects humans to be practical. Faith without deeds is dead. (James 2:14-20)

Sweden's inhumane priests and pastors have, as well as Sweden's anti-Christian government and parliamentarians, obstructed all avenues of 'normal' progression against me within the Swedish society. Your intercessory prayers are certainly encouraged, but God's and your intervention and practical help is needed. Will you help?

Due to Swedish incivility and inhumanity, my life progression in Sweden lacks basic human dignity. Shortly after I left permanent residency in Canada twelve years ago to evangelise and resume residence in Sweden, my life in Sweden could analogically be described as having stood for ten years at the bottom of an unclimbable pit; everyday shouting upwards for help from the pit in hope that one day, one of the hundreds of humans and Swedish priests that each week look down into the pit and see me shouting, would toss down a rope. Every other month or so, a Swedish priest shouts back into the pit and says "I shall pray for you." before disappearing. But not one Swedish human will be practical - and offer the end of a rope. Prayer has become a comfortable excuse among the religious for not wanting to help. And so my unresolved agony as an innocently excommunicated Christian seeking a church and marriage continues; day by day and year after year. Inhumane and evil Sweden, resembling Satan himself, steals, kills and destroys (John 10:10) - and offers no liveable future.

Please visualise this life situation: More than fifteen years (15 years!!) I have daily prayed for God to find a Christian woman interested in communication, friendship and marriage. More than seven years (7 years!) I have regularly emailed my plea to every denominational church in Sweden concerning my despairing need for acceptance into a Christian church and for help by a Christian at enabling communication between myself and with a Christian unmarried woman. During these last five years (5 years!) I have pleaded to English-speaking churches and international ministries, such as yours, all over the world for prayer support concerning my need for church fellowship and marriage. But there is apparently not one Christian anywhere on earth who wants to invite me into Christian fellowship, and to assist towards communicative connections.

I am not convinced of a prayer-alone solution in regards to matters that are easily resolved through a willing response in the natural. Logically, a human person needs to become the solution towards relational assistance, as we are social beings by God's design. No Christian in Sweden wants to be a helping friend. Although I have many Christian acquaintances I do not have one Christian friend within Sweden. Because no Christian in Sweden is a friend and no person in Sweden wants to help, it appears impossible to resolve my circumstantial crisis within Sweden. No pastor or priest in Sweden knows me or speaks with me, and no Christian acquaintance in Sweden is a friend. Simply expressed: Christians in Sweden don't care. Therefore, perhaps the prayer-alone solution is a non-solution. I am convinced, however, that God is waiting to find a human of God's avail; a willing Christian, to become the help I need - so that I can commence to meet and communicate with a Christian woman. Based on my knowledge and experience of Sweden, a nation impoverished from lack of social capital, I assess of the situation that only humans outside of Sweden will be able to become the Christian friend that I need. Unlike Swedish church people, will you as a non-Swede please take action as a Christian should?

Year 2002 I was unexplainably excommunicated from the Swedish Pentecostal denomination (<http://www.pingst.se>). Since then, I have continually pleaded to the denominations and churches in Sweden that a pastor or church would want to act with Christian compassion. I have been begging the churches and denominations in Sweden if any Christian pastor would want to welcome me and assist in the difficult life situation that anti-Christian Swedish society and the unrighteous excommunication from church has imposed. However, no church in Sweden wants to help. All churches in Sweden shun me.

As a Christian, I need church fellowship. As a human, I need a humane environment. And as a single man longing for Christian marriage, I need opportunity for communication with other Christians. Sweden currently obstructs all three basic needs. It is nearly impossible for me as a Christian single man to marry a Christian woman in Sweden, because: 1) I am excommunicated from church without a provided reason, 2) no pastor in Sweden wants to welcome me and assist, 3) there are few Christians in Sweden (~5%), 4) most Swedish-nurtured and Swedish-cultured Christian women are feminists (relatively radical), and 5) in most international comparisons Swedish people would best be described as social imbeciles. Therefore, I plead for your intervention through practical help. Will you be a friend in Christ? I also encourage your intercessory prayers for God to transform the hearts and minds of pastors and priests in Sweden so that their Swedishness will be transformed to Christlikeness, and for the difficult life circumstance that Swedish church governance has created and sustained for me here. Not one "Christian" pastor in Sweden wants to welcome me and help. Not one "Christian" pastor knows me. And not one "Christian" in Sweden is a friend.

My current circumstance in longing for marriage companionship as an outcast from church is grievously cruel and unhealthy. In addition to the Swedish obstructions of attaining a marriage-future, family-future, church-future, or theology-studying future in Sweden, I also have no academic and professional future in Sweden (please read about the corrupted Swedish academia: <http://www.nenzen.net/KI-short.pdf>). Consequently, I need to emigrate from satanic Sweden to any nation where Christian church leaders are still compassionate: welcoming, discipling, encouraging and helping other Christians. As a Christian, I need fellowship with other Christians and a possibility to pray, work and worship together. As a human, I need an environment of possibilities for marriage. Therefore I need to emigrate – with a little help from you.

Sweden is a secularised extremist, antichristian, anti-Semitic, abortion-promoting, sciencephobic, anti-family, morally confused, cowardly, corrupt and thoroughly rotten nation - a nation of the shadow of death. It is not only a personal opinion, but it is a known fact that the perverse Swedes are more anti-God than any other people on earth: <http://www.nenzen.net/satanic-Sweden.pdf>. In a recent survey of 114 of the 192 recognised sovereign states, Swedish people were radically the least interested in religion compared with all other nations (82% not interested). Affluent and arrogant Swedes appear to worship pseudo-science and themselves, and in principle all "Christian" pastors and priests in Sweden are either heretics or hypocrites, or both. Sweden is culturally the most anti-God nation on the planet according to the survey, and Swedish pastors are probably the most evil pastors on earth. (Survey: <http://www.gallup.com/poll/142727/religiosity-highest-world-poorest-nations.aspx?version=print>).

All the students I have mentored at universities in Sweden, and all international students that I have spoken with at Swedish universities, without exception express varying degree of concern regarding the anti-social and unfriendly nature of Swedish people. This is one official [permission to publish] testimony from an international student regarding his experience in Sweden (<http://www.kyrkor.be/student-testimony-of-Sweden.pdf>). This is a secular description of Swedes: (<http://www.swedenson.com>).

The letters sent to the Swedish pastors in request of their willingness to welcome and assist are published on: <http://www.kyrkor.be>.

By reasoning, it is difficult to conclude differently than that Swedish pastors and priests are uncompassionate. The inductive logic towards this conclusion could be formulated as follows:

- Fact 1: All "Christian" denominations in Sweden and the majority of churches in Sweden have received my plea for help.
- Fact 2: Not one single pastor in Sweden has replied that the pastor wants to help.
- Fact 3: Most pastors in Sweden who have responded to my direct plea express discourtesy and prejudice. Some Swedish pastors, furthermore, falsely accuse me.
- Fact 4: Several pastors in the United States that have chosen to comment this described Swedish circumstance have expressed some empathy, respectfully articulated humane and Biblical encouragements, and confirmed willingness to pray for Sweden and for my personal Swedish circumstance. (Hawaii a more deviant state: <http://hawaii.kyrkor.be>)
- Premise 1: It is uncompassionate to not want to help a distressed person.
- Premise 2: Torsten is a distressed person.
- Premise 3: No Swedish pastor wants to help Torsten.
- Conclusion: All Swedish pastors are uncompassionate.

If there is exemption from the conclusion that all Swedish pastors and priests are merciless, such an exceptional Swedish pastor would need to falsify the objective fact number 2, and hence premise number 3.

Some Swedish pastors have objected to Swedish pastors being categorically described as uncompassionate, although none of the pastors that object wants to help. Apparently, Swedish pastors are incapable to understand the relationship of causality over extended time (Swedish pastors are ascribed the attribute as uncompassionate only after years of Swedish pastors' declared unwillingness to help and the remaining pastors' disregarding silence).

The attitude of unwillingness to help a distressed brother in Christ has no Biblical support. Swedish pastors' unwillingness to help and their lack of mercy is not sanctioned in the canonical Gospels (read: Luke 10:25-37). Disobedience to God's will is sin. Swedish pastors' conveyed mercilessness indicates either their heartlessness or their intellectual deficiency, but unmistakably the Swedish pastors' uncompassionate attitude is sinful. Someone could even go as far as arguing that Swedish pastors are evil – or even satanic.

"Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is in your power to act. Do not say to your neighbour, "Come back later; I'll give it tomorrow"— when you now have it with you." (Proverbs 3:27-28)

There is not one Bible-believing church anywhere in Sweden that will declare the necessary Christian attitude to want to help. I can unfortunately not concede to an attitude of mercilessness from an alleged "Christian" church.

Because of the inhumane loneliness as a result of excommunication from church in Sweden combined with the scarcity of 'normal' friendliness in the Swedish culture, and because of my desire to marry a Christian woman, I direly need your practical help. Emigration from Sweden is currently my only option to participation in a welcoming and compassionate Christian church, and for participation in society. Naturalisation through marriage into an English-speaking nation somewhere in the world is the only option. As a Bible-believing evangelical Christian man, Christian marriage is in principle impossible for me within Sweden. God is proficient at performing the miraculous, but I do need your practical assistance also; or at the very least through your prayer towards a Godly practical solution.

I urgently beg for your practical help, or at the very least for your prayers, toward a practical solution to my human longing for marriage with a Christian woman. It is such an elementary human matter, yet in a secularised and evil Sweden with corrupt church governance, the possibility for normal Christian marriage is impossible for me within Sweden. Please persist in prayers for this anti-Christian and anti-Semitic Sweden, and please consider also your possibilities at becoming a practical Christian in this matter.

Although I remained loyal to God's calling to evangelise in Sweden by returning to Sweden as a missionary in Dec. 1998 and initiated the evangelism project "Jesus loves Sweden" (<http://www.helig.com>) in Jan. 1999 and continued evangelism in Sweden despite opposition to the evangelism from many Swedish churches and despite not receiving any form of support from any church in Sweden, and although I had remained faithful to the specific woman that God had planned for me towards marriage (<http://royalcourt.nenzen.net>) in Sweden, and although I had daily prayed particularly for that specific woman during the preceding twelve years (12 years of daily specific prayer!), that specific woman decided to be unfaithful to God's will. In that woman's grave defiance against God regarding marriage she fulfilled her disobedience on June 19, 2010 when she married someone that God had not intended for her. On June 19th I consequently lost "everything". While there was time, no priest or pastor wanted to help. Most Swedish pastors were clueless to God's will because they are deaf to God and because they refused to communicate with me, many pastors had been sufficiently informed but they did not believe, and at least one (indications of several) priest understood the truth but did not want to help. (Comparable attitudes: John 19:15, Luke 19:14). Primarily because of that woman's disobedience to God, but secondarily because of sins of omission from priests and pastors that were supposed to support, God's good plan for her and for me was destroyed. Without exception, no "Christian" in Sweden wanted to act as a Christian, and all priests and pastors in Sweden were ignorant or malevolent. Satan was assisted through both active malevolence and passive sins by all Swedish pastors/priests, and ultimately satan won through the specific woman's arrogance and disobedience. If any Swedish pastor/priest in future were to repent from their evil attitudes and malevolence, and thereby would decide to want to help me regarding marriage, that help would arrive too late. Nevertheless, I am alive and therefore God can still use me – but never within God's original plan for her, for me, and for Sweden. The consequences of that woman's disobedience and insubordination to God and the effect of sins by all Swedish pastors/priests will remain.

On June 28, 2010 the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada decided that I am not welcome to return to my home country Canada as a returning permanent resident, in spite that I was raised and schooled in Canada and in spite that my only brother and my parents live in BC, Canada as Canadian citizens. Theoretically my biological parents in Canada could legally sponsor my return to Canada towards permanent residency, but my parents do not trust me financially. On May 31, 2011 I was detained and imprisoned by the Canadian government (through cbsa-asfc.gc.ca), and on June 1, 2011 I was deported from Canada (<http://www.nenzen.net/TN-to-CBSA-110707.pdf>). I am not permitted to visit Canada again. On August 29, 2011 the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (through cbp.gov) sent to me an email informing that CBP had cancelled my authorization to travel to United States under the Visa Waiver Program (ESTA). On September 12, 2011, the Embassy of the United States of America decided to not issue a tourist visa to me; a decision that in practice necessitates that I am banned from entering USA as a tourist forever (<http://nenzen.net/American-Embassy-in-Sweden-losing-credibility.pdf>). I have been excommunicated and ostracised in Sweden for almost a decade, and from year 2011 I am banned from visiting North America in future. I am insufficiently Swedish to be accepted and integrated in Sweden, and I am insufficiently Swedish to be allowed to visit North America. In practice, I am to a large extent stateless.

Currently I have no possibility to worship with a Christian/Messianic congregation, no possibility to fellowship in a Christian/Messianic community, no possibility to develop Christian/Messianic relationships, and no possibility to marry a Christian/Messianic woman. Therefore, a Christian community in an English-speaking nation now needs to invite me and help me get connected within their Christian community. Will you be that help?

Sweden truly is a loveless, Christless and inhumane circumstance.

I have been active on Christian singles websites since around 1995, and periodically I have dedicated 40 hours per week as a full-time occupation attempting to connect with Christians on such singles sites. One of the largest international Christian singles sites has banned me (<http://www.kyrkor.be/satanically-influenced-Sam-Moorcroft.pdf>). I would be surprised if anyone has more exposure to Christian singles sites as a user than I. As harsh and church-incorrect as it will sound, yet from my extensive experience from online Christian singles connective websites, I need to be fully honest and conclude that, in essence, most Christian ladies on internet singles sites are there because of at least one of these two reasons: 1) bodily disadvantage in competing for men's natural interest, 2) shy/introverted personalities or other personal problems. The grave overrepresentation of introverted/problematic/unattractive women on "Christian" singles sites is a logical reason why I prefer to encounter more "normal" Christians face-to-face within a healthy church setting rather than online. Because I am excommunicated from the churches in Sweden and ostracised from the Swedish society, remaining in Sweden is an impossible option. I need opportunities for real social interaction with other "normal" Christian singles, and therefore I absolutely need to emigrate.

Current:

Currently I am visiting in the Holy land that God loves; Israel. During the past two weeks I have visited many congregations and Christian ministries here in Jerusalem. The opposition from church-people against me here in Jerusalem is beginning to manifest.

Because Israel is also the nation that I love more than any other nation on earth, I will refrain from exposing the individuals, the specific ministries and the specific congregations that act counter-productively, as to minimize the damage of such exposure, while it would be unjust if I abstained from shedding some light on the reality of the situation among the Christian ministries and churches here in Jerusalem.

The Christian churches/prayer ministries in Jerusalem are divided; some Arabic-speaking Christian churches are denying Israel's divine right its land, and some English-speaking Christian churches are opposing the Messianic congregations.

And as customary among multifaceted church-people, also in Jerusalem some churches/prayer ministries are in practice opposing formation of Christian marriages, although their lips may publicly speak in defence of Christian marriages. As I have attained information about the persons who have commenced opposition against me here in Jerusalem, I do see a link between these persons' personal failures in their own relationships, marriages and potential divorces, and their opposition to the possibility of other people succeeding in Christian marital love. I recognise that these specific church-persons who are actively obstructing God's good will for me here in Jerusalem are not primarily malicious, but I do see that ignorance and emotional hurts are more plausible explanations to their opposition against me.

To a Christian ministry in Jerusalem I wrote the following: "For your information, I will share also with you about my primary objective here in Jerusalem. But please don't share this information with persons that might misunderstand or who might react counter-productively to this objective: I am here in Israel to find a young Christian/Messianic woman to marry. Therefore, I will be trying to find opportunities to meet and talk with people. As I am sure that you will understand; without interpersonal communication no relationship may emerge."

In response, one church-ministry leader in Jerusalem replied: "I just want to mention, that since this is your objective in being here, please do not use my [ministry] as an "opportunity" to meet a young women."

One of the four recognised Christian prayer ministries in Jerusalem responded through one of their male staffs: "If your primary desire to come to the meeting is to pray for [subject], I will be most happy to take you, Torsten. If it is for even a hint of any other motivation, I would caution you that this is [an important] matter, & prefer you not to come. With [name of church] again, if your primary desire is to Worship, I would invite you to sit with me. (If you can bear it, after this email !). If your primary motivation is anything else, then please don't." In other words, if Torsten even in the slightest degree desires to communicate with unmarried women after service in hope of developing relationships, then he is not welcome to participate in the service. And, this particular male does not even want Torsten to sit next to him if Torsten's primary objective for leaving Sweden and for visiting Israel is to meet and talk with people, to develop relationships, and to pursue the possibility of Christian marriage with a Christian woman.

Please do pray that these emerging opponents against me within the Jerusalem churches will not succeed with their counter-productive measures, and that their carcinogenic words behind my back in multiplying the opponents against me would cease.

Apart from the devil quickly raising opposition against me from church-people in Jerusalem, I have also spoken with many friendly church-people in this great city.

Please pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

Please pray that I will be able to quickly leave Sweden to resume my necessary pursuit to find an English-speaking Christian community somewhere on earth; a church that does not intend to obstruct God's will for marriage, but who wants to facilitate the essential circumstances towards communication. For this reason, please pray that God will find a church-pastor on earth who is a practicing Christian. Please continue to pray that I will meet a Christian woman of God (who loves Jesus Christ more than she loves anyone else, and who has the necessary courage to communicate) within an English-speaking church somewhere on earth.

Thank-you for considering your possibility to be part of God's new solution by helping in a practical manner.

Current:

The past weeks, satan recognised another person that he could use to further his satanic attacks against me; with purposes to obstruct and to destroy. This time, satan used Sam Moorcroft, the owner of a website business (ChristianCafe.com) which profits financially from Christian single people seeking relationships with other Christian singles. Sam Moorcroft is the president of RealCafes.com Inc and Moorcroft Enterprises Canada. In Sam Moorcroft's miscommunications with me, he obsessively manipulated my posted written profile on his website ChristianCafe.com during a period of time. When I recently confronted Sam Moorcroft with a demand that he would discontinue his obsessive and targeted manipulation of my posted profile, he countered by banning me from his business website with charges of misconduct. Although he presented a correct fact that my age is 45 and not 36-40, both the framework and the language of this particular accusation, his unethical manipulation of customer's profiles, his mismanagement of his business communications, and in context of the notorious presence of scammers on his ChristianCafe.com business, the action taken by Sam Moorcroft cannot be swept aside as merely unethical, contextually unjustifiable or disproportionate. No, I believe Sam Moorcroft's obsessive and targeted action against me is a satanically influenced attack. Furthermore, Sam Moorcroft steps beyond another ethical boundary by falsely accusing that I am not ready for a relationship because I would have unresolved anger issues; a groundless accusation containing no truth whatsoever. Satanically influenced Sam Moorcroft incorrectly accused "I strongly suggest you get professional counselling, as you appear to have serious unresolved anger issues. Once you have received extensive counselling, perhaps then you will be ready for a relationship."

In scope of the frequent evangelism that I have partaken in since 1995, I identify from experience a pattern of how satan operates. In conjunction with evangelism, satan retaliates. Soon after an evangelistic outreach, satan often attacks with his regular arsenal of evil through any persons that currently would be accessible for his use. Satan enjoys utilising also pastors, priests and church leaders as tools for his evil. In conjunction with Sam Moorcroft's obstruction by banning me from access of communication with other singles on his profitable business ChristianCafe.com, I had just shortly before then street-evangelised within the city of Birmingham in England. In the afternoon, as I was helping my friend in England by mowing the leaves from his backyard lawn, the Holy Spirit spoke to me with the words "you will lose the battle". Often when the Holy Spirit speaks to me, I am initially ignorant to the exact interpretation. Not until later that same evening, when Sam Moorcroft closed access to my account on his ChristianCafe.com business, did I suspected the connection between the words of the Holy Spirit and Sam Moorcroft. In hindsight, the Holy Spirit was absolutely correct – as always. Satanically influenced Sam Moorcroft banned me from his singles website ChristianCafe.com, and through this he legally accomplished the will of satan to obstruct. Sam Moorcroft and satan won this battle. I lost.

As a consequence of Sam Moorcroft's satanic victory against me, the prospect of connecting and communicating with other single Christians has become more limited for me. Previously, a Swedish/Scandinavian Christian singles site 7ehinlen (today: solidlove.com) banned me because I had written in my profile that I only sought a non-feministic and non-Swedish woman, which the pro-feministic and Swedish site owner disliked. Also previously, a former Swedish Christian young-adults communication site (flow.crossnet.net) banned me because I had posted with my written profile a self-portrait photo with an Israeli flag as background, which the Swedish Christian site owner expressed disapproval of by stating "The Israeli flag can be interpreted as offensive."

Not only am I effectually excommunicated from all churches in Sweden, ostracised from Swedish society, forever banned from visiting United States as a tourist, permanently banned from visiting my home territory Canada, but I am now also banned from one of the larger international Christian singles sites. A more popular website for Christian singles is ChristianMingle.com and they do not notoriously harbour scammers in the extent that Sam Moorcroft's ChristianCafe.com site does, but my disadvantage on the more popular ChristianMingle.com site is that essentially all its members are stationed in United States, with some exceptions living in Canada. Since I am forever banned from visiting United States as a tourist, it is next to impossible to develop a relationship with any of the American women on ChristianMingle.com, as knowing from years of experience that the most common reason of rejection is unwillingness to initiate a long-distance relationship.

Satan is certainly successful in his obstruction, destruction and evil - through pastors, priests, church leaders and other representatives of Christianity.

The recent dialogue with Sam Moorcroft: <http://www.kyrkor.be/satanically-influenced-Sam-Moorcroft.pdf>

- In regards to United States forever banning my entry into USA as a tourist (<http://nenzen.net/American-Embassy-in-Sweden-losing-credibility.pdf>), there could be a conceivable connection between my public stance for scientific truth in abortion research (<http://www.nenzen.net/KI.pdf>) and American federal government agency fears and subsequent opposition to pro-life people as terrorists (<http://www.lifesitenews.com/news/constitutional-experts-pro-life-terrorists-could-be-permanently-detained-wi>). Possibly only someone with insight to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security can confirm or refute this.

61. Sixty-first International Plea

Sent: Friday, September 30, 2011 12:16 AM

Subject: Quest for a Christian community somewhere on earth

An appeal for practical Christian help: Christian unmarried man innocently excommunicated from church in Sweden, ousted from Swedish society, and currently without humane future in Sweden, because of Sweden's heartless pastors and heretic priests, and due to Sweden's aggressively anti-Christian culture.

Dear Pastors and Ministry leaders,

Will you please help? If for some reason it is impossible for you to be a friend in Christ and to be practical, then will you please at least pray - that a human on earth will want to help?

Update:

The U.S. Department of State and the American Embassy in Stockholm confirmed in a recent email that I am insufficiently Swedish, as their reason for my inadmissibility to visit U.S.A., while their responses raise even further questions about the rationale by the U.S. State Department and the American Embassy in Stockholm. Those dialogues may be read here: <http://www.kyrkor.be/USA-Embassy-Stockholm-decision-110912.pdf>

Update:

On September 12, 2011, the Embassy of the United States of America in Stockholm decided to not issue a tourist visa to me. This decision from the US Embassy, that I am not eligible for a tourist visa, succeeded after a brief (5-minute) interview where the US consular section interviewer focused the questions towards two specific areas: 1) Why were you deported from Canada on June 1, 2011?, and 2) How can you afford to travel so much? The choice of questions asked by the US Embassy, pertaining to the deportation from Canada, indicates that the US Embassy was either sloppy or ill-informed. And the questions pertaining to my ability to finance my travels is blatant evidence of the US Embassy's neglectfulness. Attached with my tourist visa application were print-outs and originals of my bank statements, and proof of my monthly income during the intended time of travel. The documents which were submitted to the US Embassy proved that I have sufficient savings, with an adequate income each month while I travel. And yet, the embassy asked questions about my ability to finance my travel.

At the abrupt ending of the brief (5-minute) interview in the US Embassy, the interviewer hastily slipped over a piece of paper (<http://www.kyrkor.be/USA-Embassy-Stockholm-decision-110912.pdf>) to me, followed directly by a return of my (possibly unread) application together with my attached substantiating documents.

Given the categorical explanation from the US Embassy that I have weak family and social ties to Sweden, and that a reapplication for a tourist visa must show stronger social or family ties to Sweden, in practice it means that I can never again in my life visit USA as a tourist. The ties that the US Embassy is looking for are stronger ties to Sweden. That will never happen. Since it is impossible for me to strengthen my social ties to Sweden (excommunicated from Swedish churches and ostracised from Swedish society), and since I have no family in Sweden, this decision in reality necessitates, (if the American Embassy means what they say), that I am banned from entering USA as a tourist forever. This is a tragedy for me, as Canada and USA are my cultural home territories, and United States (statistically) offers the greatest potential to connect with other Christians/Messianics.

I have now been excommunicated and ostracised in Sweden for almost a decade, and 2011 turns out to be the year that I am banned from North America. In June 2011 I was banned from visiting Canada. In September 2011 I was banned from visiting USA.

Currently I have no possibility to worship with a Christian/Messianic congregation, no possibility to fellowship in a Christian/Messianic community, no possibility to develop Christian/Messianic relationships, and no possibility to marry a Christian/Messianic woman. Sweden truly is a loveless, Christless and inhumane circumstance.

Summary from 3 weeks in Chicago and 2½ months in New York City:

On May 31, 2011 I was detained and imprisoned in Canada. The following day, Canada extradited me to U.S.A. I am not permitted to visit Canada again. U.S.A. has welcomed me to remain in the U.S. for ninety days.

- Canadian government detained, handcuffed, imprisoned and extradited Torsten: <http://www.nenzen.net/CBSA.htm>
- Canada formally endorses its lies against Torsten: <http://www.nenzen.net/CBSA-lies-110707.pdf>
- Torsten responds to the Canadian government lies: <http://www.nenzen.net/TN-to-CBSA-110707.pdf>
- Church offices and pastors in British Columbia, Canada are unwilling to act as Christians: <http://www.kyrkor.be/Okanagan.htm>

During the first three weeks immediately following the extradition from Canada into U.S.A. on June 1, 2011, I sought to find a Christian church in Chicago, Illinois. In Chicago I was innocently excommunicated from four (4) megachurches within a time frame of three weeks. To be innocently excommunicated by four churches within three weeks could be a world record, or at least it is my personal record. I was excommunicated from Willow Creek Church, Park Community Church, Moody Church and New Life Community Church. I visited also other "Christian" churches in Chicago, and I have emailed many more "Christian" churches in Chicago than I have visited. Most of the Chicago-churches do not bother to reply.

- New Life Community Church in Chicago excommunicated Torsten: <http://kyrkor.be/New-Life-Church-Chicago.htm>
- Moody Church in Chicago excommunicated Torsten: <http://www.kyrkor.be/Moody-Church.htm>
- Willow Creek Chicago excommunicated Torsten: <http://www.kyrkor.be/Willow-Creek-Chicago.htm>

Because I was unable to satisfactorily find a Christian church anywhere in Chicago, I moved onwards in my search for a Christian church to New York. For two months I have sought after a Christian church here in New York, but I have yet not found a church home anywhere in New York, although a couple of churches in NY have shown some degree of accommodating gestures. I have emailed to many church offices in NY and most church offices in NY actually do reply, but some churches in NY refuse to reply. Most visits to the churches in NY have been dehumanising experiences, but again, there are several generally friendly churches also. In short summary, church-people in these NY churches are difficult to connect with, not so inviting or welcoming, and superficial. In no church anywhere in NY have I found a real Christian woman who wants to communicate.

Satan was unceasingly active also through the church-pastors in New York City. Satan, through the church offices in NY, performed his regular repertoire to obstruct God's good will for me to marry a Christian woman. These are only several of many other examples of satan's destruction through church-pastors in NY:

- Redeemer Presbyterian Church excludes Torsten from attending their Fellowship Groups: <http://www.kyrkor.be/Redeemer-Presbyterian-Church.htm>
- Sha'ar Adonai Church ostracises Torsten from further attendance at their church: <http://www.kyrkor.be/Shaar-Adonai-Church.htm>
- Times Square Church expelled Torsten from their church building: <http://www.kyrkor.be/Times-Square-Church.htm>

Among all the churches that I have visited in the United States, the very small Messianic congregation Kehilath HaDerekh (<http://www.khdnyc.org>) was the only church (Messianic Judaism) where I encountered a benevolent and pragmatic leader. Pastor/rabbi Reb Benzi of this small Messianic Congregation was the only pastor in USA that satisfactorily earned my respect and trust. No other pastor anywhere in the world has accomplished to gain adequate respect in relation to attitude, leadership style, pragmatism, humbleness and care. May God abundantly bless Reb Benzi and this small Messianic congregation. Although there existed no woman in this very small congregation that I could marry, it was certainly a base for some spiritual growth and edification.

Hopefully comprehensible to at least a few, I am disappointed and perplexed that in such a populous city as New York City with ample Christian singles (Demographics: NY/NJ has one of the largest surplus of single women in the US), in spite of visiting multiple church meetings each Sunday, in spite of visiting multiple Christian meetings each Shabbat, and in spite of visiting many church events during each week, I was incapable to identify one single woman who wanted to communicate with me. During three months of diligent exposure to church-people in churches in Chicago and in New York City, not one church-woman wanted to communicate. Not one! Not even only to communicate.

I returned to satanic Sweden on August 27. On August 29, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (through CBP.gov) sent to me an email informing that CBP had cancelled my authorization to travel to United States under the Visa Waiver Program (ESTA). I have scheduled an interview with the American Embassy in Stockholm on September 12, with intention to apply for a tourist visa. Please pray that the American Embassy staff will decide to issue a visitor visa.

Please pray that I will be able to quickly leave Sweden to resume my necessary pursuit to find an English-speaking Christian church somewhere on earth; a church that does not intend to obstruct God's will for marriage, but who wants to facilitate the essential circumstances towards communication. Please continue to pray that I will meet a Christian woman of God (who loves Jesus Christ more than she loves anyone else, and who has the necessary courage to communicate) within an English-speaking church somewhere on earth.

Thank-you for considering your possibility to be part of God's new solution by helping in a practical manner.

Other churches that deserve short comments are:

- All Souls Church (<http://allsoulschristianchurch.com>) – Very friendly, welcoming and sociable people. Healthy social dynamics. However, no singles available in this small church.
- Redeemer Presbyterian Church (<http://www.redeemer.com>) – Mega-church consisting of predominantly early- or mid-career singles. Sociable, yet I estimate that only 15% of single attendants remain for church refreshment after Sunday services. Supportive office staffs. Performs infant “baptisms”, and allegedly supports supersessionism.
- Trinity Wall Street (<http://www.trinitywallstreet.org>) – Quite friendly, but perceived as distant from God.
- The Journey Church (<http://upperwest.journeymetro.com>) – Exceptionally stage-focused and dehumanising Sunday services, superficial and many defensive singles, immature “Christianity”, but at least a sociable jogging group. Some friendly office staffs and consistently good email conduct.
- Citylight Church (<http://citylightnyc.com>) – Officially welcoming, responds well to email, errant personal prosperity teachings, some spiritual sensitivity, young, superficial.
- C3 Manhattan (<http://www.c3manhattan.org>) – Ambitious stage performance. Their second pastor is destructively and errantly presumptuous, and their first pastor is more welcoming although he remains theatrical also in personal conversation. Performance focused Sunday service.
- Gallery Church (<http://www.gallerychurch.com>) – Small, young, mixed maturity levels, and expansive church. Immature yet visionary and humble leadership with growth potential. No sociable singles available.
- Sha’ar Adonai Messianic Congregation: (<http://www.shaaradonainyc.com>) – Congregation leader and all its elders strangely refuse to reply to any of my emails. Sociable after the Saturday services. Some healthy outreach and evangelism. No young singles in this congregation.
- Forefront Church (<http://forefrontchurch.com>) – The most dehumanising Sunday church visit I have experienced anywhere in NY. Unwelcoming and unsociable.
- Beth Israel Worship Center (<http://www.bethisraelworshipcenter.org>) – In spite of being a Messianic congregation I rank it as the second most dehumanising Sunday church visit in the NY neighbourhood. Superficial and unwelcoming.
- Brooklyn Tabernacle (<http://www.brooklyntabernacle.org>) – Does not welcome to participate with their young adults - possibly due to church office loyalty with Times Square Church. Brooklyn pastor requested “Please have someone from Times Square contact us about your situation at their church.” Times Square Church refuses any communication with me.

My situation in New York, with a clear objective to find Christian singles to communicate with so that I subsequently may find one woman to marry, is very peculiar. Although all church-people tell me that there are many singles in New York, I am unable to discover one Christian single female in New York who wants to communicate with me. Maybe New York Christian singles are so career focused that they are unattainable, or perhaps the Christian single women in NY churches are so protective to their undesired singleness that they effectively shield themselves from any Godly possibilities. Whatever the explanations - one thing is certain: something is wrong.

Please continue to pray that I will satisfactorily connect with a practical Christian church somewhere in New York, and that I will meet a Christian woman of God (who loves Jesus Christ more than she loves anyone else, and who has the necessary courage to communicate with me) somewhere in New York.

... In a recent survey of 114 of the 192 recognised sovereign states, Swedish people were radically the least interested in religion (82%) compared with all other nations. Affluent and arrogant Swedes appear to worship pseudo-science and themselves, and in principle all "Christian" pastors and priests in Sweden are either heretics or hypocrites, or both. Sweden is culturally the most anti-God nation on the planet according to the survey, and Swedish pastors are probably the most evil pastors on earth. In conjunction with a visit to a pentecostal church in Worcester in United Kingdom (St. Pauls church, <http://www.stpaulschurch.co.uk>) on 2010-08-25, a pentecostal pastor falsely accused in a private meeting that the reason why Torsten is not yet married in spite of Torsten having prayed for marriage for 17 years is that there is something not right with Torsten's relationship with God. The pentecostal pastor also accused that Torsten is obsessed to get married. When Torsten at the conclusion of the meeting directly inquired with the pastor if he would want to help Torsten to connect with Christian singles, the pastor responded in the negative. Several days after the personal meeting with the pastor, in email the pastor denied his earlier statements from the meeting. Apart from that pastor's blatant lies (denial of factual truth) regarding the pastor's own statements, there is an evident gap of logic in the pastor's failing to recognise the relationship between Torsten's involuntary singleness and Torsten's absence of connecting settings for Christian singles, Torsten's excommunication from church in Sweden, all Swedish pastor's refusal to helpfully invite into a discipling church, and Swedish royal sin.

 Although I remained loyal to God's calling to evangelise in Sweden by returning to Sweden as a missionary in Dec. 1998 and initiated the evangelism project "Jesus loves Sweden" (www.helig.com) in Jan. 1999 and continued evangelism in Sweden despite opposition to the evangelism from many Swedish churches and despite not receiving any form of support from any church in Sweden, and although I had remained faithful to the specific woman that God had planned for me towards marriage (<http://royalcourt.nenzen.net>) in Sweden, and although I had daily prayed particularly for that specific woman during the preceding twelve years (12 years of daily specific prayer!), that specific woman decided to be unfaithful to God's will. In that woman's grave defiance against God regarding marriage she fulfilled her disobedience on June 19, 2010 when she married someone that God had not intended for her. On June 19th I consequently lost "everything". While there was time, no priest or pastor wanted to help. Most Swedish pastors were clueless to God's will because they are deaf to God and because they refused to communicate with me, many pastors had been sufficiently informed but they did not believe, and at least one (indications of several) priest understood the truth but did not want to help. (Comparable attitudes: John 19:15, Luke 19:14). Primarily because of that woman's disobedience to God, but secondarily because of sins of omission from priests and pastors that were supposed to support, God's good plan for her and for me was destroyed. Without exception, no "Christian" in Sweden wanted to act as a Christian, and all priests and pastors in Sweden were ignorant or malevolent. Satan was assisted through both active malevolence and passive sins by all Swedish pastors/priests, and ultimately Satan won through the specific woman's arrogance and disobedience. If any Swedish pastor/priest in future were to repent from their evil attitudes and malevolence, and thereby would decide to want to help me regarding marriage, that help would arrive too late. Nevertheless, I am alive and therefore God can still use me - but never within God's original plan for me, for her, and for Sweden. The consequences of that woman's disobedience and insubordination to God and the effect of sins by all Swedish pastors/priests will remain.

Sweden is a secularised extremist, antichristian, anti-Semitic, abortion-promoting, sciencephobic, anti-family, morally confused, cowardly, corrupt and thoroughly rotten nation - a nation of the shadow of death. A prayer request – and petition for real human help: Christian unmarried man ousted from Swedish society and currently without future in Sweden, because of Sweden’s heartless pastors and heretic priests, and due to Sweden’s antichristian culture.

Dear Pastors and Ministry leaders,

Please visualise this life situation: After more than fifteen years (15 years!!) of daily fervent prayers for God to find a Christian woman interested in communication, friendship and marriage, and after six years (6 years!) of regularly emailing my plea for help to every denominational church all over Sweden concerning my despairing need for help in meeting a Christian woman, and after several pleas for prayer support concerning my need for church fellowship and marriage during the past three years (3 years!) to caring non-Swedish churches and international ministries such as yours, my conviction in a prayer-alone solution is weakened. Logically, a human person needs to become the solution towards relational assistance, as we are social beings by design. No Christian in Sweden wants to be a helping friend. Although I have many Christian acquaintances I do not have one Christian friend within Sweden. Because no Christian in Sweden is a friend and no one wants to help, it appears impossible to resolve my circumstantial crisis within Sweden. No pastor/priest in Sweden knows me or speaks with me, and no Christian acquaintance in Sweden is a friend. Simply expressed: Christians in Sweden don’t care. Therefore, perhaps the prayer-alone solution is a non-solution. Perhaps God is waiting to find a human of God’s avail, a willing Christian, to become the help I need - so that I can meet and communicate with a Christian woman. Based on my knowledge and experience of Sweden, a nation impoverished from lack of social capital, I assess of my situation that only humans outside of Sweden will be able to become the Christian friend that I need.

A personal prayer request and public bulletin of contemporary Christianity in Sweden

Dear Pastors and Ministry leaders,

Will you please help to pray for Sweden?

I am contacting you because of an urgent personal need and because of the depraved church governance in Sweden. My name is Torsten. I am a normal 39 years old man and I have never been married. I was raised in British Columbia, Canada but moved as an adult to Sweden. I strongly desire to share my love with a Christian woman within marriage and have, consequently, prayed regularly the past fifteen years for God's blessing of a wife. The past ten years of daily prayers for a wife have included many grieving and painful tears in longing for marital companionship. I also grieve over human loneliness and social exclusion due to the lack of compassionate and humane pastors in Sweden.

There are principally two obstacles creating this very difficult life situation of wanting to marry but finding no-one. Firstly, I live in Sweden. Sweden admirably is a state of relative socio-economic equity, but is also a nation impoverished from lack of social capital. Swedish Christian women are generally feministic and proud, and culturally somewhat fearful/shy/suspicious to new contacts – especially for one-to-one conversations. Secondly, I do not belong to a Christian church and therefore I do not have the possibility to become acquainted with any Christians. I was excommunicated 2002 from a Swedish Pentecostal church without a given reason or explanation.

One of the Pentecostal denomination's sectarian churches (Stockholm Karisma Center) excommunicated me 2002 without informing me of a reason. After half a year from being excommunicated, an unofficial source informed me that "The purpose of the excommunication was to help you along the way." This exact statement was later reiterated by a pastor of the Swedish Pentecostal denomination. Because the church would not explain the excommunication with any other statement, I requested that the director of the Swedish Pentecostal denomination (www.pingst.se) would investigate the church and provide me with a reason for the excommunication. After several months, the Swedish Pentecostal denomination simply concluded that "We cannot see any reason to excommunicate, but you have been defined as a difficult person. We cannot acquit you." The Swedish Pentecostal denomination's singular argument for myself being a "difficult person" was the fact that the Swedish Vineyard denomination 1997 expelled me from further studies at Vineyard Theological School in Stockholm.

The Swedish Vineyard denomination expelled me from further studies at Vineyard Theological School in Stockholm 1997 because of two unexplainable reasons. The Swedish pastor motivated my expulsion from the Swedish Vineyard by two cryptic statements "You are not the sort of person we want to approve. You have emotional problems." I directly asked the Swedish pastor what he meant. The Swedish pastor curtly replied "I understand that you do not understand." After one week I emailed the Swedish pastor and asked him again what he meant with his motivation for expulsion. This time, the Swedish pastor lied and denied that I had been expelled. After another week, the Swedish pastor had changed his mind again and answered "You may remain in Vineyard Theological School, but you can not attend my lectures." After the Swedish pastor's lies I did not want to return to that theological school. Even to this very day, this Swedish Vineyard pastor's unexplainable actions and unsubstantiated accusations against my person function as a reason that the Swedish Pentecostal denomination cannot acquit me of charges of being a "difficult person". Since the Swedish Vineyard pastor has had ample opportunity the past almost ten years to explain his words and deeds, and yet has not, I will publicly guess what happened. Probably, the Swedish pastor thought I was a homosexual. In 1997 it was a trendy fashion to have slightly longer hair in the neck in the form of a ponytail. Also I followed that trend and therefore had a ponytail with a thin pink stretchable string to tie the hair. I have never been, am not, and shall never be a homosexual. I am sexually attracted only to women.

Since the excommunication from the Swedish church 2002, I have pleaded with most churches in Sweden for any church to want to welcome me as a member of their church and to want to assist my search for a wife. The past ten months I have pleaded each week to over 1000 Christian churches in Sweden that any pastor would want to welcome me and help. Unfortunately, not one pastor in all of Sweden wants to welcome and help, but the response from Swedish pastors are instead falsely accusatory, presumptuous and discourteous. Most of the Swedish pastors reply with false accusations against my person in an unchristian manner. Swedish pastors are each week revealing themselves to be inhumane and uncompassionate. Every public letter sent to Swedish churches is published at www.kyrkor.be.

As I will only marry a girl who loves Jesus Christ more than she would love me, I would expect to find a woman of God within a church context. Therefore, I have inquired with churches all over Sweden if anyone cares to assist the search for Christian fellowship with Christian singles, as to enable commencing a relationship process that may progress into marriage. Most Swedish pastors, however, nurture church cultures characterized by superficial communication and inhibit establishment of settings that would make genuine Christian relationships (accountable discipleship) attainable. Moreover, many pastors in Sweden actively suppress evangelical truth and its proponents.

Last year 2005 I applied for full time theological studies at a university college; Stockholm School of Theology (www.ths.se). My application for theological studies at the Swedish university was denied by the university rector. The Swedish rector created an additional qualification requirement only for me. The rector illegitimately required that the Swedish college would not accept my application until I would apologize for having sent a letter to the college on the topic of homosexuality. Through the evangelism project I initiated in 1999 Jesus Loves Sweden (www.helig.com/index_e.html), I had sent an article where I proclaimed and argued that homosexuality is a sin against God (www.helig.com/opinion_archive.html). All members of the Swedish parliament received the same letter, as did all national newspapers. The members of parliament did not demonstrate as much opposition to the letter as did the Swedish Christian institutions. The Swedish theological college's refusal of my application for studies is a blatant discrimination against those who hold to the view that homosexuality is a sin against God. This case (15929/06) is currently being decided at the European Court of Human Rights.

This year 2006 I applied for theological studies at two other university colleges in Sweden: Orebro Missionsskola (www.orebromissionsskola.se), and Johannelunds teologiska hogskola (www.johannelund.nu). Both Swedish university colleges rejected my application. Orebro Missionsskola rejected my application because I could not provide any references. I am excommunicated from Swedish churches and thereby no pastor in Sweden knows me, and therefore no pastor can recommend me. Because no pastor in Sweden can recommend me I requested that the theological college, instead of the required recommendations, would personally interview me. They agreed and did instead interview me over the telephone. Not until I requested a reason why I had not been selected for studies did the Swedish theological college explain that the agreed interview would not replace the requirement of recommendations. As a result of Swedish pastors' evils through unrighteous excommunication from church, and because of uncompassionate Swedish pastors' unwillingness to welcome and help into any other church – I am not permitted to study theology in Sweden. The other theological university, Johannelunds teologiska hogskola, rejected my application because I stated that I could not foresee myself working within a Swedish church, as probably no church in Sweden would want to employ me, and because my primary concern is evangelism. The Swedish theological university will apparently only accept students who guarantee that they want to be employed within a Swedish church. The Apostle Paul's example of self-financing is apparently not acceptable. Evangelists and missionaries are not allowed to study theology.

In essence, this is my experience in Sweden: Evil is just as prevalent within the Swedish churches as outside the churches. In general, Swedish pastors are among the greatest hypocrites in Sweden. The greatest opposition towards evangelizing the gospel truths in Sweden does not come from any political party or government – the strongest opposition comes from the well established Christian churches.

May I please ask that you will pray for these natural and simple needs:

- 1) Pray for compassionate pastors within Sweden.
- 2) Pray for a church in Sweden that will want to welcome and assist.

Thank-you for praying for Sweden.
