

Sam Moorcroft, owner of the website businesses ChristianCafe.com, RealCafes.com and Moorcroft Enterprises Canada Inc, manipulates his customer's public profiles behind their backs, sells his customer's email addresses to disreputable buyers, and unfoundedly accuse one of his customers of anger issues.

Satan recognized another person that he could use to further his satanic attacks against me; with purposes to obstruct and to destroy. This time, satan used Sam Moorcroft, the owner of a website business (ChristianCafe.com) which profits financially from Christian single people seeking relationships with other Christian singles. Sam Moorcroft is the president of RealCafes.com Inc and Moorcroft Enterprises Canada. In Sam Moorcroft's miscommunications with me, he obsessively manipulated my posted written profile on his website ChristianCafe.com during a period of time. When I recently confronted Sam Moorcroft with a demand that he would discontinue his obsessive and targeted manipulation of my posted profile, he countered by banning me from his business website with charges of misconduct. Although he presented a correct fact that my age is 45 and not 36-40, both the framework and the language of this particular accusation, his unethical manipulation of customer's profiles, his mismanagement of his business communications, and in context of the notorious presence of scammers on his ChristianCafe.com business, the action taken by Sam Moorcroft cannot be swept aside as merely unethical, contextually unjustifiable or disproportionate. No, I believe Sam Moorcroft's obsessive and targeted action against me is a satanically influenced attack. Furthermore, Sam Moorcroft steps beyond another ethical boundary by falsely accusing that I am not ready for a relationship because I would have unresolved anger issues; a groundless accusation containing no truth whatsoever. Satanically influenced Sam Moorcroft incorrectly accused "I strongly suggest you get professional counselling, as you appear to have serious unresolved anger issues. Once you have received extensive counselling, perhaps then you will be ready for a relationship."

In scope of the frequent evangelism that I have partaken in since 1995, I identify from experience a pattern of how satan operates. In conjunction with evangelism, satan retaliates. Soon after an evangelistic outreach, satan often attacks with his regular arsenal of evil through any persons that currently would be accessible for his use. Satan enjoys utilising also pastors, priests and church leaders as tools for his evil. In conjunction with Sam Moorcroft's obstruction by banning me from access of communication with other singles on his profitable business ChristianCafe.com, I had just shortly before then street-evangelised within the city of Birmingham in England. In the afternoon, as I was helping my friend in England by mowing the leaves from his backyard lawn, the Holy Spirit spoke to me with the words "you will lose the battle". Often when the Holy Spirit speaks to me, I am initially ignorant to the exact interpretation. Not until later that same evening, when Sam Moorcroft closed access to my account on his ChristianCafe.com business, did I suspected the connection between the words of the Holy Spirit and Sam Moorcroft. In hindsight, the Holy Spirit was absolutely correct – as always. Satanically influenced Sam Moorcroft banned me from his singles website ChristianCafe.com, and through this he legally accomplished the will of satan to obstruct. Sam Moorcroft and satan won this battle. I lost.

As a consequence of Sam Moorcroft's satanic victory against me, the prospect of connecting and communicating with other single Christians has become more limited for me. Previously, a Swedish/Scandinavian Christian singles site 7ehinlen (today: solidlove.com) banned me because I had written in my profile that I only sought a non-feministic and non-Swedish woman, which the pro-feministic and Swedish site owner disliked. Also previously, a former Swedish Christian young-adults communication site (flow.crossnet.net) banned me because I had posted with my written profile a self-portrait photo with an Israeli flag as background, which the Swedish Christian site owner expressed disapproval of by stating "The Israeli flag can be interpreted as offensive."

Not only am I effectually excommunicated from all churches in Sweden, ostracised from Swedish society, forever banned from visiting United States as a tourist, permanently banned from visiting my home territory Canada, but I am now also banned from one of the larger international Christian singles sites. A more popular website for Christian singles is ChristianMingle.com and they do not notoriously harbour scammers in the extent that Sam Moorcroft's ChristianCafe.com site does, but my disadvantage on the more popular ChristianMingle.com site is that essentially all its members are stationed in United States, with some exceptions living in Canada. Since I am forever banned from visiting United States as a tourist, it is next to impossible to develop a relationship with any of the American woman on ChristianMingle.com, as knowing from years of experience that the most common reason of rejection is unwillingness to initiate a long-distance relationship.

Satan is certainly successful in his obstruction, destruction and evil - through pastors, priests, church leaders and other representatives of Christianity.

I have now received further evidence that you, Sam Moorecroft, are acting on behalf of the devil against me.

You have apparently gone so far as to delete all my previous correspondence from other customer's mailboxes on your Christian Cafe business, in your obsessive pursuit to obstruct their communications with me.

You, Sam Moorcroft, are clearly satanic.

Evidence is pasted beneath

You are a pathetic liar, Sam Moorcroft. It is essentially impossible to send twelve emails within three minutes where each of the twelve emails has a different time stamp. Each of your emails had identical text. Moreover, you even suggested in your response about your planned mailbombing action with your words "Did you want me to send you the same email 12 times?". As I said, your behaviour is immature and everything about your conduct indicates at the very least a double-natured and childish individual, and your words and actions the past days is timely evil, by satanic inspiration. So don't lie to me that all those emails that you sent to me were sent by mistake. Unless you were drunk or affected by narcotics at the time of sending, you deliberately sent twelve identical emails by (at the very least) clicking 'send' twelve times. Your purpose of mailbombing me was to indirectly communicate aversion and power, and to create a nuisance. You are a pathetic liar Sam Moorcroft.

Which alliance partners did you receive money from as you sold email addresses? What are the company names of your alliance partners? To my email address that you sold I was contacted by spammers and scammers. The persons that contacted me through your sales of email addresses were not reputable companies, but were identified as spammers and scammers.

Your manipulation of my public profile behind my back is unethical. You have no right to edit, add, subtract or in other ways manipulate profiles without acknowledging your intention and action. It is of course not surprising that you evade to explain your unethical manipulation of customer's profiles on your Christian Café. Anyone will disagree with your mismanagement of communications in this regard. If you intend to alter a person's profile, then you are morally obliged to communicate your intention to that person. And if you already have altered a person's profile, then you must communicate to that person that you have already made alterations. You can not simply manipulate people's profiles without informing them. For you to understand such fundamental ethics is to expect too much from you. You have repeatedly and in many different ways shown that you are a person of little integrity, poor judgement and of malevolent intention. Why did you repeatedly and obsessively manipulate my profile on Christian Café without neither communicating your intention to alteration in advance nor communicating manipulation afterwards? Why did act behind my back?

Satanically, you attack me with yet another false accusation in your last email as you write "I strongly suggest you get professional counselling, as you appear to have serious unresolved anger issues. Once you have received extensive counselling, perhaps then you will be ready for a relationship." Because I explained the reason why satan invoked you to attack me with your timely obstruction against me, in that you probably have unrepented sin in your life and thus are spiritually open to demonic influence, and also because I compare your mailbombing anger against me with that of a child's mentality, you counter with another false accusation against me that I would have "serious unresolved anger issues". How mature and credible is that? What basis do you have for accusing me of serious unresolved anger issues? What substantiates your accusation? Explain your facts and your rationale of your accusation! If you have no fact and no credible argument for throwing your false accusation at me, then does this not further strengthen my case against your attack against me as invoked by satan? I believe it does.

Also, you deliberately pervert reality with allusion to personal dishonesty when you accuse "You are lying about your age. We have caught you doing this repeatedly." When I have opted for an age category that will generate appearance for age-relevant searches among an age category for which I seek, you accuse me lying. Contrary to your false allusion, I have never lied to any person regarding my age when asked in personal communications through TCC mail, through email, through Skype, through eye-to-eye dialogue, or any other personal communications media. In fact, in several of my personal communications I have introduced to the respondent my actual age without the respondent having asked. That is truth before God. Because you deliberately pervert reality with your allusion 'We have caught you lying about your age repeatedly.' it is evident that you have evil intention; as from someone who is timely satanically invoked.

You claim to now have removed your obligatory weight categories from your Christian Café site. If you now have removed your obligatory weight categories, then now also remove your obligatory age categories! Similarly, where you force your customers to publicly declare their salary through multiple choice categories of income range but with an addendum category "That's personal.", both weight and age should also be voluntary information through an addendum category choice "That's personal." But, since you clearly lack a sufficient human empathy and a good moral compass, you appear incapable to understand such human basics.

Sam Moorcroft, your attack against me is satanically invoked. I recommend that you repent from the sin that allowed satan to influence your attack against me.

Also, pay back what you now have stolen from my Visa card!

I am puzzled as to why you continue to cc other Cafe addresses, when you are emailing me. Perhaps that was a mistake on your part. My multiple emails to you must have been me holding down the "send" button by mistake.

Let me address your issue around you being the "the recipient of spam and scam", then we will consider all matters closed concerning your prior account(s) with us.

When you first signed up with us, you granted us permission to use your email for marketing purposes by our alliance partners.

Specifically, on the account creation section, it says, on the 7th page in (after the "My e-mail address is" page):

"I agree to receive offers from ChristianCafe.com advertising or alliance partners."

So, you gave us permission to advertise to you from us or our alliance partners. Any such emails could be stopped at any time simply by clicking the unsubscribe button on any unwanted email.

If you are writing to me, why do you cc other Cafe addresses? Did you want me to send you the same email 12 times?

When violations are brought to our attention, we deal with them. Regarding the "fat women" issue - we don't have weight listings anymore.

You are clearly lying about your age, yet refuse to change it to the correct one.

As I said before, the abusive letters I am referring to are the ones you are sending to me and my staff. Calling us "satanic" and "satanists" is abusive in the extreme. And, threatening non-existent legal action is just silly and accomplishes nothing.

If it for all these reasons that we are removing your account from ChristianCafe.com.

Now you have provided even more evidence about yourself to be satanic - Sam Moorcroft.

- 1) You make false accusation of abusiveness against me.
 - 2) You refuse to substantiate your accusation of abusiveness.
 - 3) You refuse to provide reference to any breach of contract or terms of business-agreement.
 - 4) You harass me with unsubstantiated accusations.
 - 5) You discriminate against me on your site.
 - 6) A few years ago I created a unique email address used only as login for Christian Café with the prefix sordfish@... . Several months later I began receiving spammer and scammers on that email address. Because I know that email address was never used or known by any other party than Christian Cafe I knew with 100% certainty that Christian Cafe was responsible. You sold email addresses to spammers/scammers as part of your business operation, correct?
 - 7) Scores of scammers sign up on your site as you permit them there.
- Sam Moorcroft, you have now proven yourself to be a useful tool of satan.

For your dishonest and unlawful business practices on Christian Cafe, and for your most distasteful and unchristian conduct, I demand that you pay back what you have stolen. You have stolen 100 CAD from my Visa card.

You are now harassing me with your false accusations. You accuse that I send abusive letters. Shame on Christian Cafe staff for again lying that I would have ever sent an abusive letter. Sent to me an attached copy of the abusive letter as evidence.

Also, you are deliberately discriminating against me on Christian Cafe. Fat women on CC declare a lower weight category than their actual weight, as obvious by their appearance in photos. And yet CC does not force all those fat women to publicly declare their correct weight. CC's inconsistent obstruction is of course timely invoked by satan. If you were real Christians, then you would understand that satan is real, that one of his objectives is to destroy, and that he uses anyone who harbours unrepented sin for his purpose. This is a Biblical fact.

Also, your refusal to answer my question confirms that Christian Cafe has evil desire to obstruct (satanism). I asked "Where in the terms of business-agreement does it say that the user must publicly declare correct weight and age? Unless you can legally prove otherwise, you have acted unlawfully in this business agreement. It can of course be tested in court in Canada, or in the UK or in Sweden."

I have caught Christian Cafe repeatedly and obsessively manipulating my profile. Within a time frame of about 20 minutes, CC manipulated my profile around ten times. This type of behaviour by Christian Cafe is dishonest, and the time frame of this repeated conduct is no less than obsessive, and your behaviour further strengthens my thesis that satan is very active at Christian Cafe.

Again I ask, where in the terms of business-agreement does it say that the user must publicly declare correct weight and age? Fat women on CC declare a lower weight category than their actual weight, as obvious by their appearance in photos. And yet CC does not force all those fat women to publicly declare their correct weight.

Contrary to Christian Cafe's false accusations, I have never lied to any person regarding my age when asked in personal communications. That is truth before God.

Shame on Christian Cafe for behaving satanically.

Now, answer my question properly.

You are lying about your age. We have caught you doing this repeatedly.

Keep your age category at its true one and you can stay.

But, if you ever send another abusive message like the one you just sent, your account will be removed and you'll be banned from ChristianCafe.com.

As per your membership agreement, you will not be entitled to any refund. Here are some relevant portions of your agreement. I'd strongly suggest you review it.

· TCC reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate your access to the TCC service, without any prior notice, upon any breach of this Agreement which is brought to TCC's attention. In the event your access to the TCC service is suspended or terminated upon any breach of this Agreement which is brought to TCC's attention, you will not be entitled to a refund of any unused membership fees.

You are being dishonest in your profile by lying about your age.

Also:

"- You will not post on TCC service, or transmit to other TCC Members or employees or anyone affiliated with the TCC, any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, harassing, racially offensive, discriminatory, or illegal material, or any material that infringes or violates another party's rights (including, but not limited to, intellectual property rights, and rights of privacy and publicity)."

You are being abusive to me and my staff with your emails to us.

This is your final warning. Either agree to stop lying about your age, or we will remove your profile.
